

DMLCS INTERPRETATIVE PUBLICATIONS

In addition to the main outputs detailed elsewhere on this site, research conducted under the DMLCS programme has made possible the publication of a range of secondary works that describe and seek to interpret various aspects of the Celtic-Latin phenomenon. Subject to any relevant copyright considerations, most of this auxiliary material is available in PDF upon request to the programme's Editor by e-mail to DMLCS (at) ria.ie with specification of what is required.
